

Public Health meets Occupational Health

16.03.2018 in the lecture hall „Kilimanjaro“ at the Swiss TPH

Swiss Tropical and Public Health Institute
Associated Institute of University of Basel
Socinstrasse 57, CH-4002 Basel, Switzerland
www.swisstph.ch

Die Anmeldung erfolgt über die Schweizerische Gesellschaft für Arbeitshygiene an
Thomas Eiche, info@thomaseiche.ch mit dem Betreff: SGAH SSHT Anmeldung GV 2018

9.15	Moderation for the Day: Herbert Manser Address of welcome by Jürg Utzinger, Professor, PhD, Director Swiss TPH
9.30	Address of welcome by Dr. Fabia Schläppi, Vice President of the Swiss Society of Occupational Hygiene
9.40	Introduction into the Day by Herbert Manser, the Organizer of this Day
9.45	1. Talk: Georg Bauer, Prof. Dr. med. DrPH “Addressing psychosocial factors at work in the digital age – a strong link between public and occupational health”
10.15	2. Talk: Prof. David Vernez, associate professor, occupational hygienist, „Public health meets Occupational Health”
10.45	Break
11.00	3. Talk: Nicole Probst Hensch Prof., PhD, MPH, „Humanbiomonitoring” in Switzerland and Europe“
11.30	4. Talk: Holger Dressel, Prof. Dr. med. MPH, “Human Biomonitoring in Occupational and Environmental Medicine: Individual and Public Health”
12.00	5. Talk: Daniel Fabian, Dr. sc. nat. ETH SRT, ERT “Biomonitoring and the exposure to lead: what can we learn today from more than 2'000 years of lead poisoning?”
12.30	Lunch at the Eulerhof
13.30	6. Talk: Prof. Irina Canu-Guseva, associate professor, epidemiologist, „Mortality from suicide in Swiss population of working age (18-65 years), in order to examine the relationship between occupation and suicide.”
14.00	Panel discussion: Moderation by Irina Canu-Guseva
14.40	Closing remarks by Marcel Tanner, President SCNAT
14.55	Short Break
15.00	Annual Assembly of the Swiss Society for Occupational Hygiene
16.30	End

Basel, 08. März 2018 / Herbert Manser